Burren College of Art Housing

Workshop participants are welcome to stay in college housing. We have a number of houses located close to the campus and village of Ballyvaughan which are simply yet comfortably furnished. All accomodation is on a self catering basis and each house has fully equiped kitchen and laundry facilities including dish-washer, oven, hob, microwave, washing machine etc. Bedding is provided and consists of a duvet, pillow and one set of bed linen. No towels are provided. Participants should bring their own. Breakfast and lunch are available in the Food of the Arts Café on campus and students can choose from a variety of local restaurants for their evening meal. All rooms are single, ensuite and cost €150 for five nights, from Sunday through to Thursday night. All participants are required to vacate the house on the last day of the course.
